

AACC/MSSS:
Mass Spectrometry and Separation Sciences for Laboratory Medicine
5th Annual Conference

INSTRUCTIONS FOR RECEIVING CME/ACCENT

Thank you for attending AACC's "Mass Spectrometry and Separation Sciences for Laboratory Medicine" conference. We hope you found this to be a valuable educational experience.

To claim your CME/ACCENT credits for this event, you will need to go online and evaluate the speakers and program. After you submit your evaluation responses, your certificate will display on your computer screen.

You will be able to claim your CME/ACCENT credit until JANUARY 8, 2016.

Below are the links for each day of the conference. You're required to visit both links and create a certificate for each day. When you click on these links, the system will require you to log in with your AACC account information. If you don't already have an AACC account, it's very easy to create one.

For best results, copy the link and paste into your browser. The link will open in Internet Explorer, Chrome, Firefox, Safari, and most other browser systems.

October 1 (Day 1)

<http://apps.aacc.org/applications/apps2/CE/intro.aspx?actNum=25981021>

October 2 (Day 2)

<http://apps.aacc.org/applications/apps2/CE/intro.aspx?actNum=26161022>

If you experience any difficulties with obtaining your continuing education certificates, please send a message to education@aacc.org.

Thank you,

AACC Professional Education Department